Publication: The Urban Fantasy Anthology

Urban fantasy, as a genre, is a tricky thing to pin down, and The Urban Fantasy Anthology handles this fact in the best way possible: by not trying. Instead, editors Peter S. Beagle and Joe R. Lansdale divide the book into three parts to show all the variation in story that falls under the umbrella of UF.

The Urban Fantasy Anthology - nyjournalofbooks.com

The Urban Fantasy Anthology is divided into three sections: Mythic Fiction, Paranormal Romance and Noir Fantasy. Each contains an introduction essay defining the section and several stories. In his essay on Mythical Fiction, Charles De Lint defines the category as having mythological and supernatural beings in modern day society.
